“ Beth, Joy, & Mark,

I grew up across the street from your mom. Your grandmother and my mother were very close. When I was in first grade your Granddaddy Mobley took me to school in his black car. June was a friend of my sister's and I was a tag-a--long. June was a lady of few words, but always had a chuckle. She sat with mom at Cobb before her death. She will be missed by all of you I am sure, but she left her mark on this earth.
