“ Tom Wascom was a man that asked little for himself but took pride in the little he had. When Tom committed to a job, he got'er done and gave all he had in him to meet his promise and he did it with a light-hearted sense of humor. A handshake was all he needed. He was real, fair, honest and committed to keeping his word. Tom was as tough as nails. He had many health problems that he carried by himself. When he hurt, he didn't show it. He didn't want to burden another, yet he was sensitive to and reached out to those around him in genuine need. He was loyal to a fault to his family, his country, his teams and his character. There are not many like Tom. He gave much more than he got. He will be remembered and he will be missed.

“ Just received this news this morning and my husband and I were just heartbroken. Tom was always smiling and laughing when he would come to greet you. Just a lovely man that you always felt comfortable around. My husband and he worked together for a while at VPW and Ed would come home with some hilarious stories about what he and Tom got in to that day. Tom always had Ed's back and Ed felt the same loyalty to Tom. We live in AZ now and haven't seen Tom in a while. Just very sad today to know he no longer lives on this earth with us. We will miss knowing that. He was just an all around wonderful guy that you couldn't help but respect and enjoy. Thank you Tom for all good memories and thank you for serving this country. Something else you and Ed had in common. We hope we get to see you again one day. Ed and Sonja Graham

“ Tom was a good friend to my husband and me. He always had a ready smile and enjoyed the simple things in life. Tom could do anything but seemed to take great pleasure in building things or repairing things; he had a natural talent for that. Tom loved his children, his family, his friends, a good steak, a nice car, his warm and comfortable home. Whatever he had, he would share with you. He enjoyed and embraced life. My memory of him is in his jeans, tee shirt and tennis shoes with a big smile on his face and his hand raised in greeting walking toward me to share a story and a laugh.

Thank you for your service to this country, Tom, and thank you for your friendship. You will be missed!

Wayne and Amber, you will be in our prayers. May God bless and comfort you.
